(c) and d). The reservation for SCs|STs have been provided in all categories of posts, namely, A, B, C & D Groups filled up by open competition through UPSC, SSC or by any other authorities. Apart from direct recruitment, reservations have also been provided in promotion in all categories of posts upto the lowest rung of Group A. The Supreme Court in its decision dated 16th November, 1996 in the Indira Sawhney and others Vs Union of India and others case basis inter alia, ruled that there should be no reservation in promotion but allowed the existing facilities in regard to reservation in promotion to continue for a period of 5 years i.e. upto 15th November, 1997.

(e) and (f) There is no proposal under consideration of government to reserve seats in academic and recruitment fields separately for people belonging to minority communities. However, sections of minorities categorised as CBCs in the lists included both in the lists of Mandal Commission Report as well as the State Government lists and, therefore, figuring in the Central List of OBCs, are entitled to reservation in civil services and posts under the Government of India on par with the OBCs. There is at present no reservation for OBCs for admission to educational institutions.
